AMID LIGHTS AND MUSIC

Masonic Bazaar Formally Opened by Grand Master Cabell Last Evening in Armory Hall—Handsome Decorations.

Amid a blaze of light flashed from hundreds of electric lamps, and the entrancing strains of music discoursed by Plitt's orchestra, the Masonic bazaar was auspiciously opened in Armory Hall on Royal street last evening, when James Alston Cabell, Grand Master of the state of Virginia, "touched the button" and delivered a masterly address upon "George Washington the Man and the Mason."

Grand Master Cabell's remarks were especially addressed to the young men and women, in which he directed their attention particularly to the high character of Washington and hos faithful devotion to the duty of the hour as it came to him. He also alluded to a fact not generally known, which is that George Washington was the first Masonic Grand Master elected under American Masonic jurisdiction, but owing to his other duties as commander-in-chief of the American armies he modestly refrained from accepting the high honor which any man might well covet. Grand Master Cabell wore the original grand master's jewel, which was made by hand, in 1778, and which was first worn by John Blair, who succeeded to the position Washington was elected to. It is a handsome piece of beautifully wrought gold, about three inches in diameter, appropriately engraved. Many examined it with great interest.

The speaker was introduced by J. J. Green, of this city, Generalissimo of the Grand Lodge of the state. Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison offered the prayer of invocation.

The decorations in the hall were exceptionally pleasing and with the handsome, attractive costumes worn by the ladies in attendance at the booths, presented a scene of especial beauty. This evening will be "Red Men's" night at which time the various lodges of that order are expected to attend. A different program has been arranged for each evening

The ladies in charge of the various booths are:

Alexandria - Washington Lodge Miss Cochran and Miss Waller—The Kitchen.

Andrew Jackson Lodge, Miss Luckett and Mrs. C. E. Dare—Fancy articles.

Old Dominion Commandery, Mrs. C. W. Fletcher, and Mrs. McMenanim—The New Edison Edison Phonograph.

Mystic Shrine, Mrs. E. H. Kemper—Smoking Room

Order Eastern Star, Mrs. F. W. Latham—Refreshments.

Mt. Vernon R. A. Chapter, Mrs. R. A. Zachary and Mrs. George W. Zachary—Groceries.

Dodge Brothers Automobile, Mrs. George H. Schwarzmann.

Flowers, Mrs. J. E. W. Timberman and Miss Callahan.

The ladies have arranged to serve supper at six o'clock every night to all desiring, consisting of chicken salad or fried oysters, Virginia ham, pickles, rolls and coffee.

Dancing will be another attraction each evening after ten o'clock.

Among recent donations received are: furniture and pictures from Lansburg Co,; barrel Lynnhaven oysters, Rush Lodge No. 89, Norfolk; pointed fox fur collar, Saks of Washington; fan, F. Jelleffe; pictures, Hub Furniture Co.

The fact that the object for which the bazaar has been arranged is a most worthy one should elicit the hearty aid of all. While the cost of the Memorial to the Father of Our Country will be defrayed by Masons from all over the land, it will be located in Alexandria, hence it is of especial interest to our citizens for that reason alone.

Low Rates to The Fair.

W. S. Ry., announces fare of $4.00 round trip, Alexandria Station to Richmond account Virginia State Fair, including one admission to the grounds. On sale October 6th to 14th inclusive;return limit October 11th. Proportionate rates from other stations. Consult ticket agents.

FIREMEN'S LOVING CUP

First Lieutenant Glasgow Carries Tribute of Alexandrians to Fire Chief W. A. Braithwaite, of Harrisonburg.

As has been stated in the Gazette, the Alexandria firemen who attended the annual State Convention in Harrisonburg last August greatly appreciated the entertainment tendered them by the firemen of the valley, and they upon their return home, obtained through H. W. Wildt, a beautiful silver-plated loving cup for W. A. Braithwaite, Chief of the Harrisonburg Fire Department, to be presented to him, as a testimonial for the royal manner in which the Alexandrians had been entertained. On Saturday last, First Lieutenant W. M. Glasgow, of the Reliance Steam Fire Engine Company, was deputed by the firemen of this city to convey the cup to the Harrisonburg chief. Mr. Glasgow carried with him the following letter:

Alexandria, Va.
Oct. 7, 1916.

W. A. Braithwaite, Esq.,
Chief Harrisonburg Fire Department, Harrisonburg, Va.
Dear Chief:—

The members of the Alexandria Fire Department who were privileged to attend the State Firemen's Convention held in Harrisonburg, August 23-25, desire to present you this loving cup, as a slight token of their appreciation of the many courtesies extended to them by you and the Firemen of your City and the Citizens in general, during their brief sojourn in your midst.

With kind regards for yourself and the other Firemen of Harrisonburg, We are,

Very truly yours,
Alexandria Firemen,
By J. H. Trimyer.

The presentation was made in the presence of firemen and others in Harrisonburg, and after Chief Braithwaite had read the letter and listened to the remarks of Mr. Glasgow, he said:

Representative Mr. W. M. Glasgow of the Firemen of the City of Alexandria,
Brother Firemen:

As all firemen know, it is work and not words that count. As I have been more accustomed to work than to words, therefore, on such an occasion as this that calls for words, expressing the feelings of the heart, instead of work, I know that I am poorly prepared to do my part in return for your generosity, which I truely appreciate.

The beautiful Loving Cup could never have been brought forth by mere words. It is the completed product of the skilled workman.

As we know that silver by labor may be taken from the hidden places in the hills, and made into shapes of beauty and worth, such as your beautiful gift, and thus become a silent, silver tongue to show the feelings that are in the hearts of those who give it; I wish that, on this occasion I could, by the use of language, give expression to thoughts that would show you the hidden feelings of gratitude I have in my heart for your kindness.

But as this is not within my power, I am sure you will excuse me from attempting to make a speech such as your kindness requires; and that you will understand me fully when I say to you, that, from the bottom of my heart, I thank you.

I am glad, too, to know that the "Boys" of the Alexandria Fire Departments enjoyed their stay here while attending the last Annual Meeting of the State Firemen's Association, and I take pleasure in saying to you, and each of you, that the pleasure you then enjoyed was not equal to that you gave the "Boys" of Harrisonburg on that occasion.

In conclusion, I wish to assure you that I shall always preserve and treasure, with tenderest memories, this handsome gift, not only for its beauty and value, but for associations and sentiments connected with it.

SERMONS OF GYPSY SMITH, Jr.

Those desiring back numbers of the Gazette containing the the sermons preached by Gypsy Smith, Jr., at the evangelistic meetings in Alexandria, should call at the Gazette office at once and secure same, as the supply is limited.

All the back numbers containing the sermons which still remain on hand have been arranged in sets. The price of each copy will be same as charged regularly for the paper.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

H. N. Garner, has filed notice with the Clerk of the Corporation Court that he will be a candidate for the position of Corporation Attorney at the coming election.

Mrs. Robert W. Davis, nee Cora Jones, of Prescott, Arizona, with two children, is the guest of her parents Dr. and Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, 120 south Pitt street.

Mrs. C. J. Semmes and Miss Jareav, of New Orleans, La., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beverley, 417 Prince street.

A meeting of the Free Kindergarten Association was held this afternoon in the residence of Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, 910 Cameron street.

While in Lynchburg, in attendance upon the sessions of the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler, will be the guest of her cousin, Mrs. George Hugh Appleton, 1303 Church street, in that city.

The regular weekly meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. will be held in the Children's Home, tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Following this the members will adjourn to Trinity M. E. Church, to hear the report of the Stante Convention, held recently in Tazewell, read by Mrs. Lillian Henderson.

Mrs. J. H. Mansfield, has returned to her home in this city from a trip to West Virginia and Ohio. While away Mrs. Mansfield attended the convention of the Daughters of America, in Wheeling, West Virginia as National Representative from Virginia. From that point she motored to a number of places of interest in Ohio.

Mrs. George Uhler, of north Washington street is visiting her son and daughter-in-law in Pittsburgh, Pa.

R. E. Knight is displaying panoramic views of the Alexandria Light Infantry Company and its Camp on the border in his store windows.

In addition to those already mentioned in the Gazette other delegates to the State Convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in session in Lynchburg, who left Alexandria today, are Mrs. E. H. O'Brien Mrs. James E. Alexander, Mrs. William M. Reardon, jr., and Mrs. George L. Simpson.

Mrs. William J. Blake, who has been in the Columbia Hospital, Washington, for three weeks, and who while there underwent a serious operation, was brought back to her home, 220 north Columbus street last night. Mrs. Blake is still, however, confined to her room and will be for some little time to come.

The Daily Progress, published at Charlottesville, had the following to say in its edition of yesterday concerning the opening of the evangelistic campaign there on Sunday evening: "Before an audience which taxed the capacity of the spacious Tabernacle, which had been erected for the meetings to be held here during the next four weeks, the long- expected evangelist, Gypsy Smith, jr., delivered his initial sermon last night. To say that the eager throng was all expectant, would be stating it mildly, as the large auditorium was filled long before the hour of 7:45 and when the noted preacher finally took his place on the stand, there was only standing room left, and many hundreds were obliged to depart or to listen outside."

Owing to illness Mrs. W. B. Ogden will be unable to attend the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy in Lynchburg, this week.

The annual meeting of the local Red Cross chapter will occur tomorrow morning in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year, also a delegate to the National Chapter.

Lulu Ann Terry, wife of W. H. Terry, of Del Ray, died at the Alexandria Hospital yesterday, aged 38, Her remains will be shipped to Doswell, Va., tomorrow where the interment will occur. The deceased is survived by her husband and four children.

Another meeting of the Alexandria general committee on the government armor plant proposition will be held tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Dr. Thomas B. Cochran was last night appointed by George W. Bontz, exalted ruler of the local lodge of Elks, to act as chairman of the committee of the annual memorial services to be held on the evening of December third.

The Board of Governors of the Anne Lee Memorial Home held their regular monthly meeting in the Home this morning when the reports of the various sub-committees were rendered.

The members of Willard W. C. T. U., will meet in Trinity M. E. Church tomorrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock to hear the report of their delegate, Mrs. Lillian Henderson, concerning the State Convention, held recently in Tazewell, Va.

THE RAMBLER

Reflections Called From Little Peeps Into The Lives of "Just Folks."

Rain coaxes sweetness from out Old Mother Earth and her children—the trees and flowers. Have you never sensed this after a rainfall? We should be greatly thankful to the people in the cities who go to the trouble and expense of maintaining gardens. Even those who have those miniature gardens, the window boxes, deserve their meed of praise. Each such an one is doing his or her share to "brighten the corner" where they are.

I sensed the kind of sweetness we are considering when I stepped out of the house last night. And to make it the more perfect there was an almost full moon in an azure blue sky curtained by the filmiest and fleeciest of snow white clouds. Just to stand inhaling the cool, pure air, and watching the great expanse of clouds drifting slowly, and with infinite majesty, southward, was to assimilate an intangible something that made a fellow feel—well, more worth-while. I wonder why we don't stop more often to dip into the inspiration Old Mother Nature can give us?

Everyday there are things—sunsets and sunrisings, vast open views of the great out-of-doors which we may have for the expenditure of but a little exercise in walking.

Presently I went on my way and presently again I met a man, and a woman who was crying. And the man was upbraiding her for so doing. Why is it, I wonder, that some men seem to lose all sense of control at sight of a woman's tears? Is it that they have a guilty conscience? And they do not seem to understand that women cry for so many different causes and that they have so many more causes than men to cry about.

And the tears of good women sweeten the life of the world. The tears shed in pity, in sympathy, in love, in agony, have made philanthropy and benevolence and brotherhood spring into growth in rocky and barren fields. The tears of the Florence Kelly's the Clara Barton's, the hundreds and thousands of their sisters, have washed indifference and greed from the hearts of the careless and the unrighteous and have helped to make this world the good place to live in that it is today. Let us be infinitely grateful for the rain of the Almighty and the tears of women.

"Momma, said the four-year-old son of an Alexandria woman the other day, "did God really an' truly make all the world?"

"He did, dear," she answered.

The chubby little chap pondered deeply for a moment or two and then he asked, very slowly and earnestly:

"Well, Momma, what did God 'tand on whilest He was makin' it?"

NEW TILING IN CHRIST CHURCH

Ceremony of Dedication Simple but Yet Very Impresive.

Under the tile in the doorway, of the vestry room of Christ Episcopal Church, lies a copper box, which, some day— mayhap many hundreds of years hence—will be taken up again by the hands of reverent people and stored among other relics of a long dead past.

The box was placed in its position yesterday afternoon with simple ceremonies designed to mark the completion of the new tiling of the aisles of the church has been done under the auspices of the Parish Aid society. Its contents include a "Book of Remembrances," containing the names of the vesterymen; all the Rectors of the church; all the Bishops of Virginia; a copy of the "Southern Churchman"; a copy of the Alexandria Gazette holding the address of the Rev. Dr. William J. Morton, delivered about two years ago to an assemblage of the Colonial Dames of Virginia, held in the church.

In the box also was a list of names of three-hundred and forty-six men and women, who came from thirty-two of the United States and from England and France, and who contributed to the tiling fund. Also the collection contained photographs of the church and a number of current coins.

Among those present were Mrs. George Uhler, and Mrs. Thomas W. Robinson, representing the Parish Aid Society; Mr. Clyde C. Lamond, and Mr. George B. French, representing the Vestry; Mr. A. Clarence Howard, representing the congregation, and the Rector, Dr. Morton.

Dr. Morton spoke briefly in eulogy of the activity and enterprise of the members of the Parish Aid Society. Mrs. Robinson spoke for the Society, of which she is president and Mrs. Dabney H. Herndon is secretary.

The tiling is greyish white in color and altho new, yet seems antique, and fits admirably into the color scheme of the church.

VISIT OF FORMER RESIDENT.

Frank Grimes Left Alexandria Fifty Years Ago. Since Which Time He Has Lived in Chicago.

A Septuagenarian, unknown to the greater number of the present generation of Alexandrians, was walking the streets of his native city today. It has been half a century since he left his home for Chicago, which has since been his abiding place. The former resident walked through the principal streets, like Rip Van Winkle unable to recognize an acquaintance, until he encountered Samuel H. Lunt, one of his contemporaries, whom he instantly recognized. While conversing with Mr. Lunt the writer passed and he was hailed, and for a short time the trio talked of old Alexandria and people who have waxed and waned during the past fifty years. Frank Grimes was the visitor. He has for years been a prominent lawyer of Chicago.

Mr. Grimes is a son of the late Charles Grimes, whom a few Alexandrians will remember as a deputy sheriff in this city in war and post-war days. While a boy he entered the clerk's office of the court when the late Jefferson Tacey was clerk. James R. Caton, one of Alexandria's prominent barristers, also mounted the first rung of the legal ladder in Jefferson Tacey's office.

Mr. Grimes hadn't long to tarry in his old home, and left this afternoon for Chicago.

BOY AND SISTER SLAIN

Run Down on Way to School As They Try to Make Short Cut Across Park.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—While hurrying to school hand in hand, yesterday, Catherine Grubb, 9 years old, and her brother, William, 6 years old, were killed by a ponderous motor-truck at 47th street and Wyalusing avenue.

Roller-skating across 52nd street, at Lancaster avenue, last night, Florence Huff, 11 years old, dashed from behind a trolley car directly into the path of an automobile. The child was picked up unconscious and sent to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital suffering from internal injuries, a compound fracture of the right leg, concussion of the brain and laceration of the head. Her condition is serious.

WOULD HURRY THE CASE

Judge Barley Notifies Harry Fleischmann's Lawyer That He Must Pay Fine and Costs of Appeal Without Further Delay.

In the Corporation Court yesterday Judge Barley directed N. S. Greenaway, Clerk, to notify Edmund Burke, counsel for Harry Fleischmann, who took an appeal from the Police Court last June, when he was fined $50 for opening his saloon on election day, that unless the fine and costs of the appeal were paid immediately, a day would be set for the trial of the case. Samuel G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, had announced his readiness to go on with the case several months ago, but the defense not being ready, the appeal was continued. Mr. Brent announced his readiness yesterday to go into the case, but Mr. Burke was not present, and the order of Judge Barley followed.

On election day, June 13, Sergeant Wilkinson with a squad of policemen, paid a visit to the saloon conducted by Harry Fleischmann, on the east side of Royal street, near King where thirty-two persons, about half of whom were females, had gathered. The inmates were cited to appear in the Police Court next morning as witnesses, and the proprietor was directed to appear and answer the charge of conducting business on election day and for furnishing females with liquor, both forbidden under heavy fines by the Byrd liquor law.

When the case was called, upon request, it was continued until the following Wednesday June 21, Fleischmann had in the meantime employed Edmund Burke, as his counsel, and upon the day before the time set for the trial the defense asked that the case be continued at least two weeks. Justice Thompson, who was presiding over the Police Court at the time, declined to continue the case, and called attention to the fact tha the defense had had a week to prepare for the trial, and as all the witnesses had been summoned for the 21st, the case would be called on that day.

Fleischmann was arraigned on two charges—opening his saloon on election day and furnishing females with intoxicants. He, however, was tried upon one—the first charge.

The bartender at Fleischmann's place of business, acknowledged that the place had been open on election night and that females had been served with liquor. A fine of $50 was accordingly imposed upon Fleischmann, from which action Mr. Burke, his attorney, took an appeal to the Corporation Court, and later F. M. Hill became Fleischmann's surety.

Judge Barley fixed the trial of the case of J. J. Hanratty, appealed from the Police Court, in which he was fined $100 by Justice Caton for selling liquor to minors, for October 24.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Ministerial Association of the Protestant Churches of Alexandria, met this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the residence of Rev. Dr. Jefferson L. Duffey, 115 South Washington Street.

Among other matters discussed were plans for the care of those converts of the campaign who have not as yet expressed any preference for any specific church. Cards bearing the names of these men and women were distributed among the various pastors present.

DEATH NOTICE

CHECK-FLASHER IN CITY

Utters Several on Harper's Ferry Bank and Obtains Goods and Money But Finds Few Victims in Alexandria

Chief Goods and Sergeant Wilkinson yesterday afternoon arrested William Carroll, alias William Davis, on suspicion of uttering worthless checks. After having been conducted to the station house a number of checks, check stubs, pass books, order books, of a portrait company, a number of photographs of women (one colored) and babies, $5 and some cents in money, etc., were found in his pockets.

The officers subsequently telegraphed to Harper's Ferry for information concerning the prisoner, and were told he was unknown there.

On one of the stubs it was implied that he had obtained $20 in money and goods from Abe Cohen of this city.

Carroll was brought before the Police Court this morning when the evidence showed that he had uttered checks in several places in this city. He entered George Wells's saloon on Fairfax street, between King and Cameron, and obtained a drink and in payment presented a check on a Harper's Ferry bank. The proprietor gave him $4.90 change. Carroll later proceeded to the cigar store conducted by Hamilton and Steiner, near the Gazette office, where he ordered a large number of cigars and presented a check for $91. The proprietors refused to allow him to take the cigars or to give him any change until the check could be sent to Harper's Ferry and verified.

Carroll appeared subsequently in Harry Steiner's cigar store, northeast corner of King and Fairfax streets, where he ordered another supply of cigars. He presented in payment a check for $40 and asked that $7 in change be given him. Mr. Steiner was as wary as Hamilton and Steiner, and declined to give him any change or to allow him to carry away the cigars. He asked Carroll where the cigars should be sent. Carroll replied. "The Rock Hotel," at Harper's Ferry. Mr. Steiner, who is acquainted with Harper's Ferry, told Carroll that no such hotel existed in that place.

Justice Caton committeed the prisoner for ten days, and remarked, "He may be wanted somewhere else."

CAN HUGHES ANSWER?

In running up and down the country to tell the voters why they should not cast their ballots for his opponent candidate Hughes is performing only one-half of the functions of a presidential aspirant. The other half is to tell the voters why they should cast their ballots for him. Up to date this feature of the campaign has been entirely neglected.

To devote his valuable time to further criticism of the Wilson administration will be to waste it. The people already understand, from a perusal of Mr. Hughes' utterances from his letter of acceptance down to the present moment, that in his view everything that the President has done in a conscientious effort to promote the common welfare is wrong. What everybody now wants to know is what should be done to set things straight. The Philadelphia Record asks this pertinent question: How does Mr. Hughes propose to rectify President Wilson's terrible blunders in dealing with Germany? Would he seize the German ships interned here, as desired by his Roosevelt supporters? Would he prohibit the export of munitions and grain to the allies, as desired by his Hexamer-Vierick supporters? If elected, what will he do to Mexico? How will he undo the mischief caused by the enactment of the Federal Reserve law, the Rural Credits law, the Child Labor law, the Trade Commission law and the Eight-Hour law? How will he proceed to secure the repeal of the appropriations made for the upbuilding of the army and navy?

These are topics of deep interest to all Americans. They want light on the Hughes program. They know what President Wilson stands for, because they can see what he has accomplished; but no word thus far uttered by Mr. Hughes indicates what he stands for.

SAYS ALL ARE CRAZY

Dr. George A. Moleen, qualifying as an expert on mental diseases, declared on the witness stand in the County Court of Denver, where Don P. Blackwood, attorney, is on trial for his sanity, that no individual, no matter how nearly normal, is absolutely sane. In qualifying his statement, Dr. Moleen pointed out that lapses of memory, forgetfulness, and the like were characteristics of insanity.

Blackwood, already adjudged insane by a commission of alienists, appealed from the decisions of the experts who examined him, and is trying to prove to a jury of six that he is not a mental defective.

An alienist many years ago took the stand in the Corporation Court in Alexandria and made the statement that any person who sheds tears is crazy. This testimony was given in a murder case, where the defense was attempting to prove that the prisoner was not responsible when he assassinated a man in our streets, because weeks before he had been found crying. The attorney for the prosecution asked the witness if Simon Peter was crazy when he went out and wept bitterly after swearing he never knew Jesus Christ. The answer was unsatisfactory.

There may be veins of indiosyncrosy in the most people. This has been apparent in some of the brightest intellects which have appeared in the world. It is said that Sir Isaac Newton on one occasion while in an Newton one one occasion, while in an kettle, and supposing it was an egg he waited for it to boil. He had previously deposited the egg in his pocket

Charles Dickens, although he unmercifully lampooned everybody for their superstition or conventionalities, manifested a vein of superstition himself. When he printed the first instalment of the Pickwick Papers he happened to be away from London. The success of the book astonished him, and as long as he lived he always managed to leave London when the first instalments of his other stories made their appearance.

Many years ago George Harvester, an English minister of the gospel, used to forget his most solemn appointments. On two occasions he was engaged to be married on certain days. Those matters left his mind entirely on the days fixed, and upon both occasions he went fishing. The women became disgusted with him and he died a bachelor.

THE GERMAN SUBMARINE.

The visit of a German submarine to Newport, R. I., last Saturday and the subsequent destruction of several English merchant ships by the vessel on the American coast is naturally causing apprehension in the United States, although the administration pretends to see nothing alarming in the procedures at present, as it is said no international law has been violated. The fact, however, remains that the Teutons have invaded the North Atlantic and are attempting to blockade the United States by stopping or destroying all ships which leave our ports.

The United States has, since the war in Europe began, passed through serious diplomatic crises with Germany. While our country has apparently emerged triumphant in these grave issues, the United States has during the past two years been the scene of disquieting procedures upon the part of Germany. Teutonic spies have been detected in all our large cities, while attempts have been made to commit overt acts by some of the Kaiser's representatives.

There have been a number of mysterious explosions in munition factories, while American citizens have perished through the ruthless submarine warfare conducted by Von Tirpiz. It was only after the most positive demands had been made upon the Imperial Government of Germany that certain assurances were given.

While there may be no actual disregard of the law of nations for a belligerent man-of-war to enter an American port, the brazen act of the submarine commander in bringing his boat into Newport, remaining three hours and later proceeding a short distance beyond the three-mile limit and sinking unarmed merchant steamers, cannot be viewed without apprehension. There is no telling what the outcome will be. Sooner or later more Americans will get sea weeds for their winding sheets.

"Goodnight Corns! We Use 'Gets-It!'"

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All. "GETS-IT" Does the Rest. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toe bleed. Funny, isn't it? "GETS-IT" is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corn, callus or wart loosens and comes off. Millions use nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere. 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Alexandria and recommended as the world's best remedy by Richard Gibson.

BAD NEWS FOR PIE-EATERS

The man or woman with a sweet tooth must in future pay advanced prices for pies. One of the most prominent dealers in pastry in Alexandria announces that open pies (custards and cocoanut productions) will in future be sold at eighteen cents each instead of fifteen as heretofore. Fruit pies, or double covers, will hereafter be sold at fifteen cents each instead of twelve. Milk has also advanced, and the person who lunches on pie and the lacteal fluid must pay the additional cost.

Pastry is in universal demand, and the announcement that prices are to be advanced for such productions is will be received with no little dissatisfaction. But what can we do about it? Rates have been advanced on everything else. Why not upon pies?

The pastry cook goes far back in history. We read of one in the Arabian Nights' Entertainment who flourished in the days of the Caliph making the best cream puffs of that day.

The visitor to London who fails to partake of the edibles of the pastry cook misses one of the features incident to his abode in the English metropolis. Meat pies are one of the greatest productions of London. They sell all way from two pence to a shilling according to size and qaulity. Beefsteak pies are in most demand, although many are filled with mutton, or veal and ham minced. When warm they are inviting, but when allowed to become cool they are veritable "sinkers" and should be avoided by persons of weak digestion.

CREW STILL MISSING

Cold Weather Prevents Further Search for Survivors of Steamer Kingston

Nantucket, Oct 10—A forty-mile northeaster and dark, cold weather has made further search for the missing crew of the sunken liner Kingston practically impossible off the light ship here today

Little hope is held that any of the Kingston's crew who might still be riding the waves in open boats will survive the weather.

Modernized Chiropractic has put more so-called Incurable Diseases on the list of curables than any other drugless method known.

When applied to the study of the nature, cause and elimination of disease, it becomes a science and philosophy whch is able to locate and analyze, unerringly, the cause of disease, and provides the best method known at the present time for removing the cause.

The method is original, unique, adequate, and is the most prompt in bringing about a cure. It is absolutely safe.

The basic principles of Chiropratic are in no way at variance with the established facts of Anatomy and Physiology, the two branches of medical science which are the foundation of all others.

SUBMARINE WARFARE

Serious International Complications Expected Shortly

Two serious international questions have arisen as a result of the German submarine campaign off the American coast. The first is between the United States and Great Britain and concerns the issue as to whether armed submarines are to be treated as warships and permitted to enter American ports. The second is between the United States and Germany and turns on the point whether Germany is fulfilling her pledges to safeguard properly the lives of passengers before sinking noncombatant vessels.

President Wilson at Long Beach, N. Y., yesterday said "The German government will be held to the complete fulfillment of its promises to the government of the United States. The government will, of course, first inform itself as to all the facts that there may be no mistake or doubt so far as they are concerned, and the country may rest assured that the German government will be held to the complete fulfillment of its promises to the government of the United State. I have no right to question their willingness to fulfill them."

The German submarines U-53 and -61 came to the American coast prepared for a long stay for preying on allied shipping. A report from Rear Admiral Knight ,at Newport, R. I., to the Navy Department yesterday afternoon, stated positively the submarines were accompanied by a large tender carrying supplies, including torpedoes sufficient to last for a long period.

Thirteen shots were fired at the British steamship Strathdene, one of the vessels sunk by a German submarine off Nantucket Sunday before the 33 members of the crew had taken to their boats, according to Capt. Wilson, the Strathdene's commander, who was brought to New York yesterday with his crew by the Uruguayan steamer, P. L. M., No. 44

"My ship was attacked without warning," declared Capt. Wilson, after he had given a detailed statement of the incident to the British consul general. "Thirteen shots were fired before we left the vessel. None of the shots however, struck the ship until we had take nto the boats."

TRAPPED BY FLAMES

Trapped in their room, two men were injured when fire early today gutted the premises at 354 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, Washington, formerly known as the Hartford House.

The victims were John T. Gormley, fifty-two years old, and William C. Scollick, forty years old, roomers at the house, were kept on the upper floor of the building when the fire gained headway and shut off escape by the hallways.

Gormley, who occupies a room on the third floor back, jumped from that floor to the roof of a building in the rear of the burning structure and suffered slight injuries to his left leg and foot. He was slightly burned on the left forearm and hand.

Scollick, who was in his room on the second floor rear of the building, jumped to the roof of a one-story structure in the rear of the burning building and both feet were hurt. Both men were taken to the Casualty Hospital.

GERARD IS SILENT

Ambassador Refuses to Answer Questions Upon Reaching New York

New York, Oct. 10—Returning from Berlin aboard the liner Frederick VIII, Ambassador James W. Gerard today refused to answer any question relating to the purpose of his visit to America at this time, saying that even the simplest question "might involve" him.

"Is it true that you are bringing a peace message from the Kaiser to President Wilson? he was asked.

"I cannot answer that question," replied Gerard. "To reply to any question of that nature might involve me".

The ambassador's attention was called to an article wirelessed from the Fredeicks VIII to a New York paper, declaring positively that he brought no peace message, but came to warn President Wilson that Germany was preparing to resume indiscriminate submarine warfare. He was asked if this was a correct statement.

"I cannot answer that," he replied. "To answer even the simplest question might involve me. I have given no interview since I left Berlin. You will note that in this article I am not quoted."

"It has been reported that you will not go back to Germany," one reporter told him.

"I am not sure when I will go back, but I certainly shall go back," was his reply.

The Ambassador was asked when he expects to see President Wilson. He replied that that was "up to the President."

Gerard said that he first learned of the submarine activities on this side of the Atlantic Sunday night. The Frederick VIII,'s wireless was constantly picking up messages throughout the night, he said. Several times the liner passed through floating oil, but he did not believe she changed her course.

Carranza up Against it

The regime of Venustiano Carranza in Mexico is doomed, according to military experts at Fort Sam Houston, headquarters of the southern department of the United States army. With Jose Ysabel Robles heading all the opposition—including Villistas, Zapatas, Legalistas and Diazistas—and Gen. Alvero Obregon turning against the first chief because of his decree of September 29 ordering the election of a President by Congress instead of by the popular vote, and also providing for a four-year-term, Carranza apparently has not a leg to stand on. Instead of Carranza having united all factions against the United States, reports indicate all the factions are united against Carranza.

Breaking world series records and tearing traditions to shreds, the Boston Americans defeated the Brooklyn Nationals by the score of 2 to 1 in a fourteen-inning game in Baston yesterday afternoon.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Paragraphs Picked Up Here and There Throughout the State.

To have two corps of June apples on the same tree in the same year is a rather unusual occurrence, but while walking through her orchard a day or two ago Miss Lillian T. McGinlie of Winchester, discovered on a tree a large number of fully developed apples.

For the first time since the European war began not a single British merchant ship passed out of the Virginia capes yesterday from Baltimore Norfolk or Newport News. The warning of the British Ambassador, which stated that it was dangerous for Allied merchant ships to sail, with a German submarine operating in American waters, was heeded. Several Greek and two Italian steamers went to sea, but they will give Nantucket and the New England coast a wide berth. Five British warships strung out along the coast between Norfolk and Nantucket were busy all of yesterday sending out warnings to ships to keep away from the New England coast.

John Swartz, 19 years old, son of Lemuel Swartz, committed suicide near Mt. Jackson., Sunday afternoon. The body was found in Mill creek on Monday. He took bichloride of mercury, and shot himself in the head, and then, apparently jumped or fell into the creek. Ill health is supposed to have prompted the act.

Charles L. Larrell, a merchant of Greene county, died Saturday from injuries caused at his grist mill near Fredericksburg, Mr. Jarrell's clothing was caught in the revolving shaft which he was oiling and he was hurled around until his left foot was wrenched off, his left shoulder badly fractured and his body badly bruised. His mangled body was found in the plt underneath the shaft by his wife.

WAR HAPPENINGS

British Extend Their Lines in Thiepval Region.

London, Oct., 10—By a series of local attacks the British have extended and strengthened their lines in the Thiepval region, according to a report from Gen. Haig last night. Further ground north of the Stuff redoubt was captured.

London, Oct., 10—Gen. Falkenhayn's forces operating against the Roumanions, who invaded Transylvania, stand on the northern threshold of the latest nation to enter the war.

The Roumanians hold heights dominating Petroseny and the Jiu Valley, as well as the Caineni defile. Berlin declares, however, "Roumanians are being rolled up along the whole lines."

Petrograd, Oct., 10—The great battle in Volhynia, east of Vladimir-Volynski, is continuing, the war office announces, and the Russians have succeeded at some places in entering the Teutonic lines. The positions taken have been consolidated, the statement adds.

Berlin, Oct., 10—The Russians are pressing their attacks in Galicia, but are meeting with successful resistance by the Austro-German forces according to an official report.

Berlin, Oct. 10—Unofficial but reliable reports from Sofia state that about 500 dead officers of the Roumanian troops were found on the battlefield near Djahovo.

Petrograd, Oct. 10—An official Russian statement says:

"Black Sea: On October 6 our torpedo boats made a raid on Samsun and Sinope, destroying 58 sailing boats of various sizes and bombarding the harbors. One steel boat was brought to Sebastopol and 40 men made prisoners."

Rome, Oct. 10—A new Italian success in the Busa Alta region, where the Austrians, after forcing the Italian right wing to withdraw temporarily were put to flight by a powerful counter-attack, is reported in an official statement given out by the war office.

The Serbs are renewing their advance. They have wrested a village from the Bulgars. Big forces are crossing the Cerna.

French Cruiser Sinks

The French auxiliary cruiser, Gallia, of 14,966 tons carrying 2,000 French and Serbian troops was torpedoed on October 4, it was announced in Paris yesterday. Out of the total 638 lives were lost. The remainder of the troops floated about for more than twelve hours on rafts and boats. They were picked up the next day by a French cruiser and two large boats and have arrived off the southern coast of Sardinia.

BEST TONIC I EVER SAW.

Norfolk Lady Finds Tanlac Just What She Needed to Bring Back Her Vigor.

Each day some new enthusiast praises Tanlac and thanks it for what it did for them. One of the latest is Mrs. H. P. Baker, of 211 Franklin street, Norfolk, Va., who said. "I had a tired sleepy feeling and no appetite. I did not feel like doing anything and was run down in general. I heard of the good Tanlac was doing and decided to try it. I am glad I did so because now I am relieved of that tired, mean, drowsy feeling and since taking about two bottles I can hardly wait for dinner-time to eat. I have a tremendous appetite and what I eat does not give me any trouble. I recommend Tanlac because I know it is a good tonic and I feel fine since taking it. In fact, it is the best tonic I ever saw and I just can't say too much for it."

This "Master Medicine," Tanlac for all troubles of the stomach, kidney and liver is now being introduced here by Leadbeater Drug Co., Alexandria, and G. T. Mankin Co.. Falls Church.

..NOTICE—Is hereby given that the undersigned will apply at the next term of the Corporation Court for license to sell, dispense and otherwise dispose of Whiskey, Brandy, Ethyl or Grain Alcohol and all other Ardent Spirits in conformity with the Prohibition Law, Chapter 146 of the Acts of the Assembly of Virginia, 1916. Cured Her Children of Colds.

"During the past winter I had occasion to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my two children, who were at the time suffering from severe colds. It proved to be the very medicine they needed," writes Mrs. Myron J. Pickard, Memphis, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

Notice to Dairymen.

Dairy farmers desiring to ship milk into the District of Columbia will hereafter be expected to have their premises in full compliance with the District regulations and to have their herds tuberculin tested or have a signed agreement with the Bureau of Animal Industry for such a test, before their applications are filed. In order that prospective applicants may know what the Health Department of the District will require of them, the Health Officer will on request send inspectors to the farms of persons intending to apply for permits, who will advise them as to the requirements of the Health Department and co-operate with them in meeting such requirements and in preparing their applications.
